Call for Artists!

Artists are invited to submit 5x7 art to The Water House Gallery on May 7th, 2025, for an enchanting evening celebrating the extraordinary in the small and the detailed. Hosted between 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. at 944 Wallahatchie Road in Pike Road, AL, this is a unique opportunity to captivate the public with small art that is just "5 inches by 7 inches".

This special Pike Road event invites art enthusiasts and collectors alike to explore a collection like no other: each piece a small-scale marvel designed to delight and inspire. With around 200 pieces available, each no larger than 35 square inches and affordably priced at no more than $57, the public has an opportunity to acquire an original artwork that can add a touch of elegance to any space.

Each artwork is not just a purchase; it's a tiny treasure capable of transforming a dark corner, complementing a well-curated display wall, or standing as a thoughtful, one-of-a-kind gift for someone special. The versatility of these petite pieces means the possibilities are endless.

Meet and mingle with artists during the artist's reception. For seasoned art collectors or those who are simply looking to begin their art collection, this is the perfect opportunity to obtain a unique, original piece of art while enjoying a delightful evening among fellow art aficionados.

Don't miss the chance to celebrate the beauty and innovation of small-scale artistry. Mark your calendars and prepare to be astonished at the remarkable world small art. We look forward to seeing you there for an event filled with captivating artwork, engaging conversations, and charming discoveries and door prizes!
